Dear Colleague,

Warm Greetings from Puducherry World History Congress! It gives me great pleasure to invite you to the Fourth Annual Session of the Puducherry World History Congress to be held under the auspices of the Department of History, Maharani's Arts College for Women, Mysuru, on 25th and 26th July 2026. I extend a cordial invitation on behalf of the Local Organizing Committee and on my personal behalf to visit Mysuru for the Fourth Session.

About Mysuru

Mysuru, officially known as Mysore, is a major city in southern Karnataka and is often called the "Cultural Capital of Karnataka." It is located 140 km southwest of Bengaluru at the foothills of the Chamundi Hills, about 770 metres above sea level. The city enjoys a pleasant climate throughout the year due to its elevation. Mysuru was ruled by the Gangas, Cholas, Hoysalas, Vijayanagara Kings, and most famously by the Wodeyar Dynasty from 1399 until Independence. Home to seven palaces with Indo-Saracenic architecture, Mysuru attracts nearly seven million visitors annually. The city is famous for its Dasara celebrations, sandalwood and incense, Mysore silk, yoga centres, Brindavan Gardens, and the palaces associated with Tipu Sultan. Mysuru is also an important educational hub with the establishment of the University of Mysore in 1916. The city was ranked 3rd in the "Super Swachh League" 2024–25.

About the Institution

Maharani's Arts College for Women, Mysuru, is one of the reputed institutions governed by the Department of Collegiate Education, Government of Karnataka. The institution celebrated its centenary in 2017. The college was established in 1917 by the Queen Regent of Mysore, Kempananjammanni Vani Vilasa Sannidhana. In 1920, Maharani's College became an institution of higher education affiliated with the University of Mysore. The college campus spreads across 6.5 acres with 149 trees. At present, the college offers 37 BA, 01 BCA, 01 BSW, 06 MA, and 02 MSc programmes. The institution is adequately staffed with 80 qualified and experienced Faculties.

Reaching Mysuru and the Venue

Mysuru is well connected by road, rail and airport network to all parts of India.
Kempegowda International Airport, Bengaluru is 160 km from Mysuru. One can reach Maharani's Arts College for Women easily, as it is

1. 1.2 km from Mysuru Railway Station,
2. 2.5 km from the Main Bus Station (Suburban),
3. and 11.4 km from Mysuru Airport.
